

IFB299 Individual Reflective Journal Marking Criteria

	Performance Standards
	7	6	5	4	3 / 2 / 1
Journal	Your journal entries
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ are concise and focussed ▪ are a thoughtful and insightful personal reflection on the development activities by yourself and your team ▪ are a thoughtful and insightful personal reflection on the client activities by yourself and your team ▪ contain an insightful evaluation of actions noting good and bad options ▪ contain an insightful choice of specific potential improvements offered to the team ▪ are coherent and integrate examples with explanations or analysis ▪ consider multiple perspectives when appropriate ▪ reflect in-depth engagement with the project ▪ are entered regularly across the assessment period 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ are focussed ▪ are a thoughtful personal reflection on the development activities by yourself and your team ▪ are a thoughtful personal reflection on the client activities by yourself and your team ▪ contain a good evaluation of actions noting good or bad options ▪ contain a choice of specific potential improvements offered to the team ▪ have explanations or analysis which are mostly based on examples ▪ make connections but new insights are not fully developed ▪ reflect good engagement with the project ▪ are entered fairly regularly across the assessment period 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ are reasonably well focussed ▪ are a good personal reflection on the development activities by yourself and your team ▪ are a good personal reflection on the client activities by yourself and your team ▪ contain a brief evaluation of some of the good or bad actions ▪ contain good suggestions offered to the team on improvements ▪ contain descriptions with little consideration of alternative perspectives ▪ reflect moderate engagement with the project ▪ are entered irregularly across the assessment period 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ are somewhat focussed ▪ are a reflection on the development activities undertaken by yourself and your team ▪ are a reflection on the development activities undertaken by yourself and your team ▪ contain a description of previous actions with some evaluation of those actions ▪ contain a few good suggestions offered to the team on improvements ▪ contain mostly description or summary without consideration of alternative perspectives ▪ reflect some evidence of engagement with the project ▪ consist of entries made just before the end of the assessment period 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ are missing or unfocussed ▪ are a poor or vague attempt at reflection on the development activities undertaken by yourself and your team ▪ are a poor or vague attempt at reflection on the client activities undertaken by yourself and your team ▪ contain some description of previous actions with no evaluation of those actions ▪ contain few suggestions on how the team can improve ▪ simply rehash previous entries ▪ display little evidence of engagement with the project ▪ consist of one or entries made just before the end of the assessment period, or are missing